President's Message

"To dream the impossible dream" is an ideal theme for this book. I dare say that it is not too lofty, but rather should be the vision of each one of us.

This noble theme comes, of course, from the Broadway play, "The Man of La Mancha," based on the classic novel, Don Quixote, by the 16th century Spanish writer, Miguel de Cervantes. In the play, the hero, Don Quixote, dares to believe in a mere scullery maiden, Aldonza. Through his seeing in her special qualities and great potential, seeing her as "his lady, Dulcinea," she comes to see herself through his vision of her. He leads her to see herself as a lady, as a Dulcinea, not as an Aldonza, and so she becomes Dulcinea. Her impossible dream became reality because someone believed in her.

COA is a place where people believe in one another, seeing each other in terms, not of what we are, but rather of what we can be. May your impossible dream be fulfilled because people you have known at COA and elsewhere have believed in you. May you help others to fulfill your impossible dreams, because you have believed in what they can be.

My very best wishes to each of you as you pursue your dream.

Larry R. Donnithorne

TEAMWORK

"Teamwork is the ability to work together toward a common vision, the ability to direct individual accomplishment toward organizational objectives. It is the fuel that allows common people to attain uncommon results."

Board of Trustees 1995-96

L to R: Rev. Charles L. Foster, Frank W. White, Jr., D. Ben Berry, Patsy R. McGee, W.C. Bill Owens, Jr., Chair- Bruce A. Biggs, Vice-Chair Philip J. Donahue, John S. Cooper, Jan C. Riley, Sonja W. Hibbard, Andrew H. Williams, Robert G. Williams, and Randy M. Harrell. (Not Pictured: Wallace E. Nelson and Christopher L. Seawell.)

We Respectfully Dedicate this book to the Seven Founding Fathers without whom College of The Albemarle would not be here today.

IN MEMORY OF
MARVENIA GODFREY WHITE
ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR, BUSINESS EDUCATION

It only takes one smile to offer welcome...and blessed be the person who will share it. It only takes one moment to be helpful...and blessed be the person who will spare it. It only takes one joy to lift a spirit...and blessed be the person who will give it. It only takes one life to make a difference...and blessed be the person who will live it.

Marvinia has touched the lives of all of us who knew her.

Natina Prince

Natina Prince was a 21 year old COA college student suffering from leukemia when she died. Many people knew Tina Prince as a happy, caring person whom not many would realize was terminally ill. We will never forget Tina and the inspiration she was, though unknowing, to many of her peers and colleagues. During the May 1995 graduation ceremony, COA awarded Tina an Honorary Associates Degree. Deborah Johnson, Tina's mother and best friend to the end, sums up Tina's last days better than anyone.

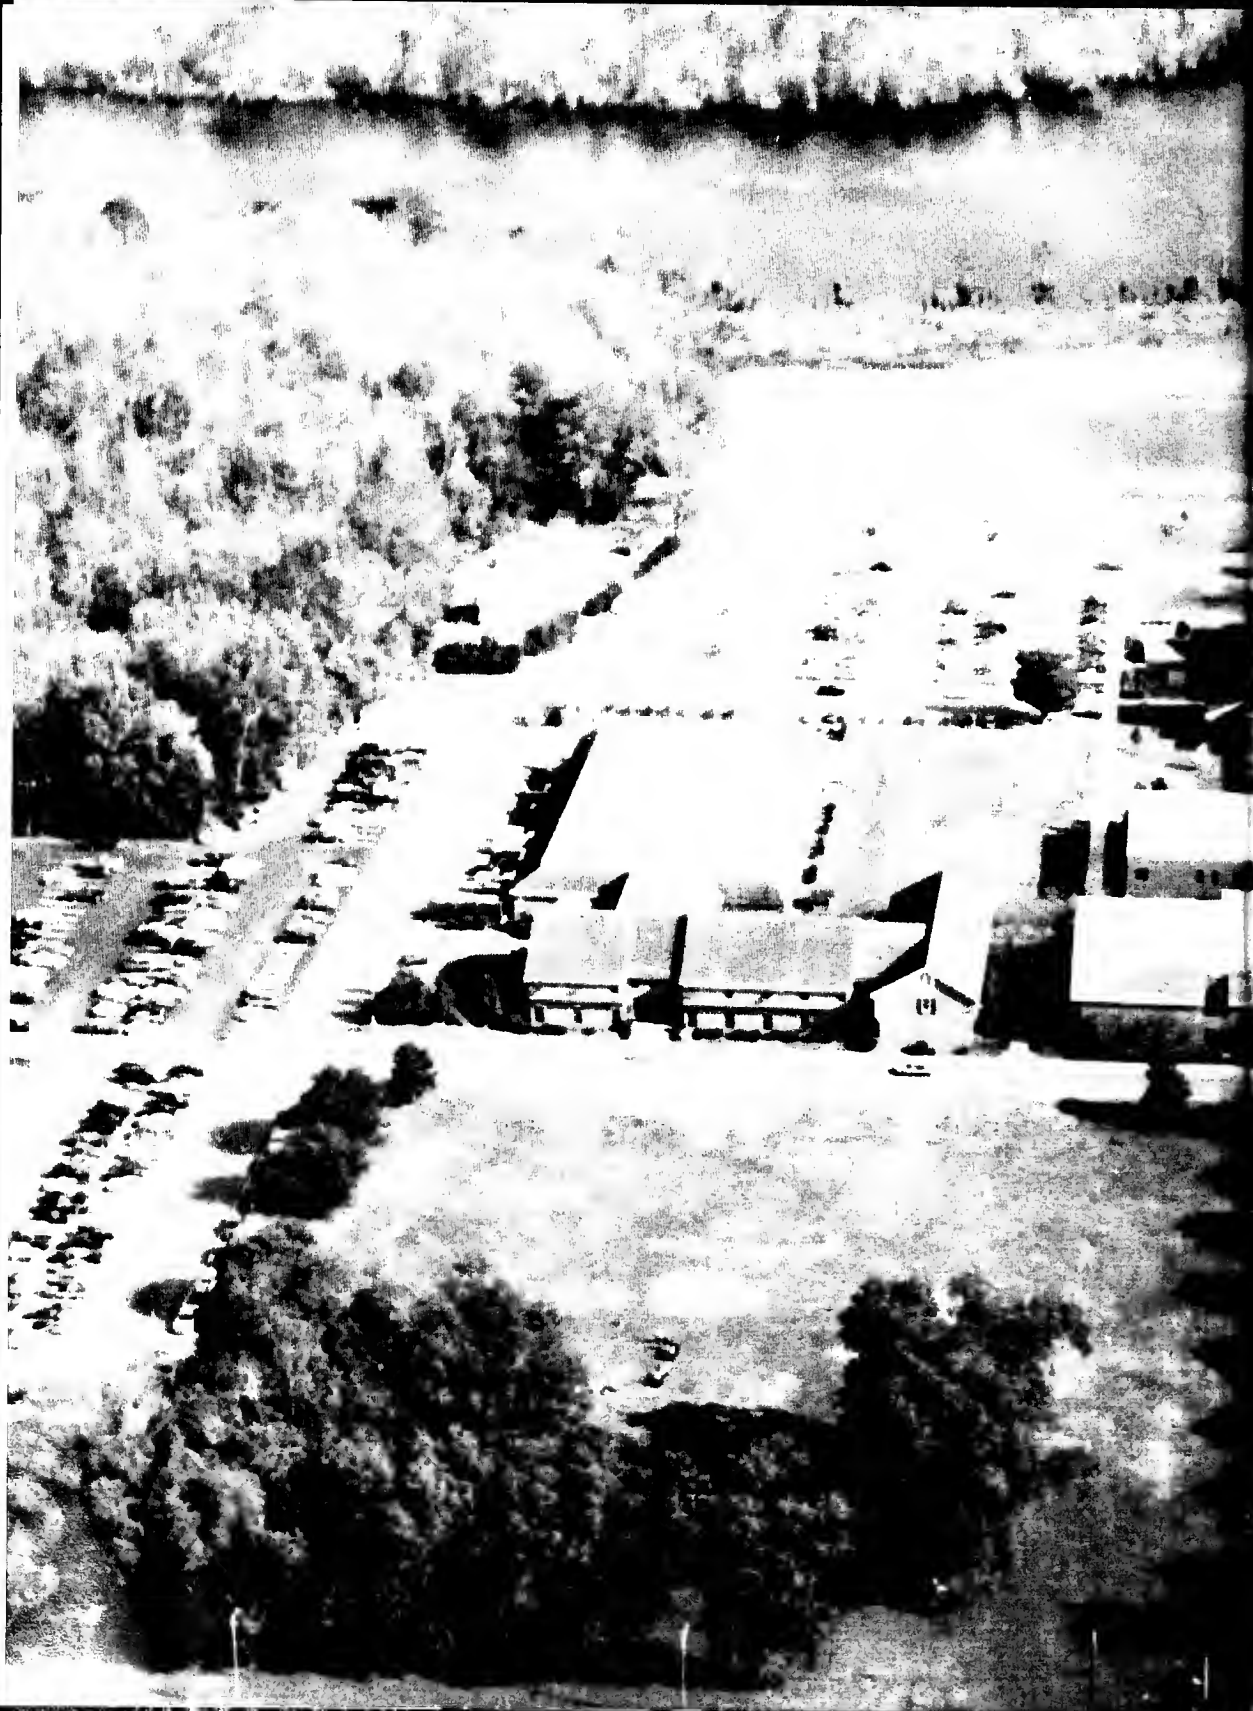

This is my personal acknowledgement to thank everyone for their prayers and concerns. My daughter, Natina "Tina" Prince, died after her 17 year battle with leukemia. She died on April 1, 1995. She struggled and fought until she took her last breath. She died in my bed surrounded by all of her family and friends. Tina didn't have an easy death. She didn't speak for a week before her death. She lost her gift of sight. She went into a coma and had seizures. At one point we knew she was very afraid. Then she calmed down and prepared for her journey. Tina had gotten tired and just couldn't fight any longer. Through the years Tina had made a lot of friends. As she was dying and after her death, these friends came to me with tears, concern, prayer and special memories of her. I would like to thank each and everyone of you for your caring and concern. Please don't forget her. I'm sure Tina will miss each one of you.

Thank you,
Deborah Johnson
Proud Mother of a fighter

Virginia Anne Starling

Virginia started attending COA the Fall of 1995. Her goal was to get a degree in business management. She brought sunshine to the lives of all who knew and loved her. She was a dedicated wife, mother and friend, and loved her family very much. If she knew of anyone in need, she would be the first to drop everything to help. She will be missed!!

TO DREAM THE IMPOSSIBLE DREAM

Wanda Butler is a forty-seven year old college student pursuing a dream of an Associate in Arts degree from COA and a Masters in Social Work from ECU. Wanda came up with the theme for the yearbook and has been a great help in getting the yearbook off the ground and running.

JUNIOR CORRESPONDENT

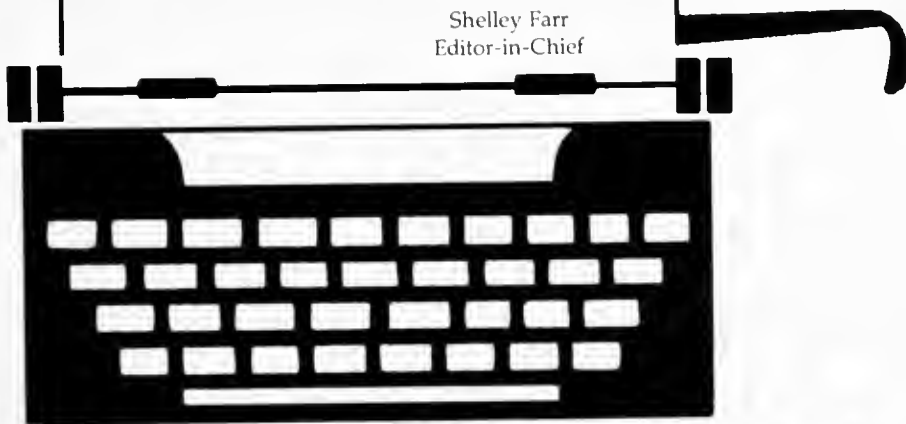

Deidra Farr, a 7th grader at Knapp Junior High School, in Currituck, NC, is our Junior Correspondent. She has been valuable in many ways, including her assistance in the design of the cover, layouts, filing and organizing. We would like to thank her for all her help and we are sure she will be a valuable asset next year on her own yearbook. The yearbook staff became aware that in some junior high schools, lower classmen were not permitted to participate on the creation of their yearbook. We decided to make it an unofficial policy to choose a deserving student, each year, to participate as a junior correspondent on our yearbook. This will give them the opportunity to learn skills such as teamwork, communications skills, compromise and resourcefulness. It will give them the opportunity to be involved in a rewarding enterprise. It's our belief that the individual will take the skills he or she has learned and become a valuable member of their yearbook staff at such time as they will be permitted to do so.

A NOTE FROM THE EDITOR!

I would like to thank everyone who worked so hard on the yearbook. Despite the hardships many of you were going through, you came through, in order to put out a great annual. I especially want to thank Jerry Oliver for his considerable help, and even more considerable patience. This was a first time experience for most of the staff and hopefully it was a rewarding one for everyone involved. I hope to see you all back next year to participate on the 1997 yearbook. With your dedication we can make it even better than this one. I hope you all liked the mini comic book, and maybe you'll see people or places that you recognize, maybe even yourself. I would have liked to have done it in color, but we didn't have that option this year, but maybe next year. I would also like to take this time to thank Mary Jones and Jeff Zeigler for their contribution. They were kind enough to go around and take photos of the staff and faculty who were unable to get their portrait done on the scheduled dates. THANK YOU EVERYONE!!

Shelley Farr
Editor-in-Chief

Shelley Farr began attending COA in the Fall of 1995. She was soon involved in many activities including Student Senate, as Freshman Class President. When she joined the staff of the Beacon, it was in the capacity of Staff Photographer. But things happen and she agreed to assume the position of Editor-in-Chief. She also was the primary source of photographs, and was rarely seen on campus without her camera. Shelley is a Business major, and plans to work towards a degree in Psychology after completing her current course work.

Success

*To laugh often and much;
to win the respect of intelligent people
and affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends;
to appreciate beauty, to find the best
in others; to leave the world a bit better, whether by a healthy child,
a garden path or a redeemed
social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded.*

Art is the spontaneous overflow of powerful emotions!

The paintings seen on the last page of the color section were done by the Art students at COA. These pieces of art hung on the walls of the main corridor in A Building, and we were so impressed with the work that we agreed to honor these students for their fine work by dedicating a page in this book to the beautiful pieces they created. We applaud your fine work and wish you the best of luck in the future with your craft; we are sure many of you will become successful artists in your own right.

TIME FOR THEATER

LUCY VAUGHAN taught drama at COA without a theater for 22 years. But since 1984, she has headed The Black Box theater, now readying for the season. In fact, curtains are going up throughout the area as stage companies present their plays. PAGE 4

Lucy Vaughan is seated third from the left. We have it from a good source that the woman seated to the left of her is Lucille Ball.

A black and white photograph of a person standing in a field of tall grass or reeds. The person is positioned in the lower right quadrant, facing away from the camera and looking towards the left. They are wearing a light-colored, long-sleeved shirt and dark pants. The field is dense with tall, thin stalks of grass or reeds that reach up to the person's head. The background is a bright, overexposed sky. The title 'Student Portraits' is overlaid in a large, stylized, black cursive font in the upper left quadrant.

Just Hangin' Out!

Get that #@%* camera out of here!

I wonder what Ryan is grinning about

OK! Tell the truth. Who has the best legs?

You've got to stop sitting for these kinds of photographs

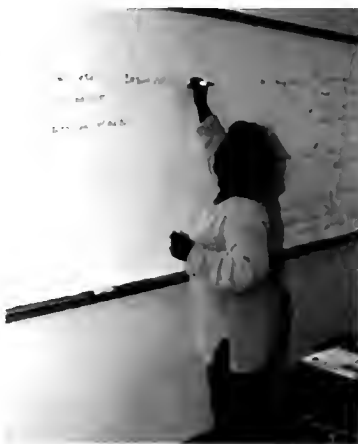

I want to be in the same class they are in

Hey! I'm the one who's supposed to be taking the pictures around here!

It's 12:45 Ms. Warren, can we go now?

As soon as you finish your thought paper.

Do you know what this tool is used for?

Go ahead, twist my arm.

You wouldn't hit a man with glasses, would you?

I'll bet you 10 bucks he'll hit him, glasses or not.

Don't Quit

*When things go wrong as they sometimes will;
When the road you're trudging seems
all uphill;
When the funds are low; and the debts
are high;
And you want to smile; but you have
to sigh;
When care is pressing you down a bit —
Rest if you must, but don't you quit;
Success is failure turned inside out;
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt;
And you never can tell how close
you are;
It may be near when it seems afar;
So, stick to the fight when you're hardest hit —
It's when things go wrong that you mustn't quit.*

E F F O R T

LIFE DOES NOT REQUIRE US TO BE THE BIGGEST OR THE BEST.
IT ASKS ONLY THAT WE TRY.

Ain't love grand?

Don't bend over!

This is my main squeeze!

This is a Rockin' party dude!

I'm not ready to smile.

Bryn put that back where it belongs

Is that for me?

We're getting there!

Whoa! What was in that punch?

WE WON!! Oh well, big deal...

It's a family thing!

What IS that?

Mmmm...Yummy!

Get me OUTTA here!

I AM your worst Nightmare, move over Freddy Krueger.

I need my fix.

I would say something, but I don't have a mouth.

OOOOOOOOOO!!! I got a bug on me!

PLEASE! Just don't poke me.

It's a lucky thing people know me.

I'm beautiful, Dahling!

I'm sorry...bees & clowns just aren't right for each other.

Arrgghh! Ya gotta love me!

Elvira Mistress of the Dark, struts her stuff.

If you can walk the walk...

I am sucking your blood, and you like it...you like it!!
